

Hidden Gardens of Eastern England with Sandringham Flower Show 5th - 12th July 2026 (7 nights)

Join us on our exclusive garden tour of Eastern England and explore picturesque countryside, historic villages and discover its hidden gardens. The counties of Norfolk and Suffolk were once some of the wealthiest in England and are home to some magnificent country estates and beautiful gardens. A highlight will be the new RHS Flower Show at His Majesty King Charles III's Sandringham Estate.

Sunday 5th July

After our morning pick up at Heathrow Airport, we head north to our first hotel, the charming 4-star Titchwell Manor Hotel, on the North Norfolk Coast. En-route we visit a delightful private garden which surrounds an idyllic thatched cottage where we meet the owner, a skilled and knowledgeable plantswoman and enjoy a guided garden tour and lunch (included). We check into the hotel in the late afternoon. Dinner in the hotel (included).

Monday 6th July

Today we take a scenic rural drive across Norfolk to East Ruston Old Vicarage. This beautiful, 32-acre masterpiece of garden rooms has herbaceous borders, gravel gardens, sub-tropical gardens, a sunken rose garden, a desert wash and a large woodland garden. We visit when the garden is closed to the public and will be joined by the owner for a tour with lunch (included). In the afternoon we stop off at Holt for some free time in this historic market town before returning to the hotel where your evening and dinner is at leisure (independent).

Tuesday 7th July

Today we spend the day at the Royal Horticultural Society's newest addition, the RHS Sandringham Flower Show. Located within the grounds of His Majesty's residence at Sandringham House, this show promises all the highlights of an RHS Show including show gardens, expert growers and excellent shopping. There will be time for lunch (independent) and to soak up the festival atmosphere. We return to the hotel for dinner (included).

Wednesday 8th July

This morning we are treated to a tour of the incredible private walled garden at Houghton Hall, one of the region's most impressive stately homes constructed in the 1720s for Britain's first Prime Minister, Sir Robert Walpole, and now the residence of the 7th Marquess of Cholmondeley. We enjoy a tour of the walled garden and house followed by lunch (included). In the afternoon we visit a private garden surrounding a delightful old Grange which showcases how colour, shape and form can be created by the use of foliage plants, from large shrubs to small alpines. We return to the hotel stopping en route at a traditional pub for dinner (included).

Thursday 9th July

After checking out of the hotel, we head south to Suffolk. En route we stop at the 18th century Palladian-style Holkham Hall, home of the Earl of Leicester to visit the 6-acre walled garden which was originally laid out by Samuel Wyatt during the late 1700s and has recently undergone extensive restoration.

We continue to Wyken Hall Garden, a garden divided into rooms which surround the Elizabethan manor house, all set in lovely countryside and the Wyken vineyard. We enjoy lunch (included) in the restaurant before exploring the garden. We arrive in Lavenham in the late afternoon and check into the 4-star Swan Hotel. Your evening and dinner is at leisure (independent).

Friday 10th July

Today we visit the spectacular Grade 1 listed gardens of the Tollemache family and learn about their 500 year history at the moated Helmingham Hall. We have an exclusive tour of the magnificent gardens which are surrounded by historic parkland. We then return to Lavenham where there is time for lunch (independent) and a walking tour around the village which is considered to be Britain's best preserved medieval village. Dinner in the hotel (included).

Saturday 11th July

Today we begin with a visit to the home of Beth Chatto OBE, who was an award-winning plantswoman, author and lecturer. After a talk about the gardens which highlights sustainable gardening through diverse environments like the Gravel Garden which thrives without irrigation, there is time to explore and have lunch (independent). In the afternoon we visit The Old Vicarage, private home of garden designer, Jeremy Allen. With interesting design and wonderful late summer planting, we will be taken on a tour by Jeremy before returning to the hotel for our final night dinner together (included) in the hotel's medieval Wool Hall.

Sunday 12th July

After checking out of the hotel our final visit is to RHS Hyde Hall garden, famed for its expertise in gardening in dry conditions. Its diverse landscapes are packed with dramatic colour and texture. We have a tour of the garden followed by a private lunch (included). In the late afternoon we drop off at the Sheraton Heathrow Hotel and Heathrow Airport Terminal 3 for inter-terminal transport links and the Heathrow Express or Elizabeth Line trains into London.

Full details of tour joining and departure can be found on our website.

NOTE: This tour includes one year's individual membership of the Royal Horticultural Society (RHS). Some garden visits await final confirmation at the time of publication.
