

Scotland's Finest Castles and Gardens

3rd - 10th September 2026 (7 nights)

This spectacular tour explores the very best castles and gardens in Scotland, as well as following some of its most scenic driving routes through the Scottish Borders and Highlands. Expect majestic castles, beautiful planting schemes, private gardens and the vibrancy of Edinburgh.

Thursday 3rd September

We meet at the 4-star Radisson Blu Hotel located on the Royal Mile, Edinburgh at 9.30am. We walk up The Royal Mile together to the majestic Edinburgh Castle, a historic fortress which dominates the skyline of the city. We make a visit to the castle, then have drinks on the terrace of our private dining room with views over the city and castle. Afternoon Tea (included) is served in the Gatehouse Suite. There will be some free time to explore Edinburgh before returning to the hotel for check in and dinner (included).

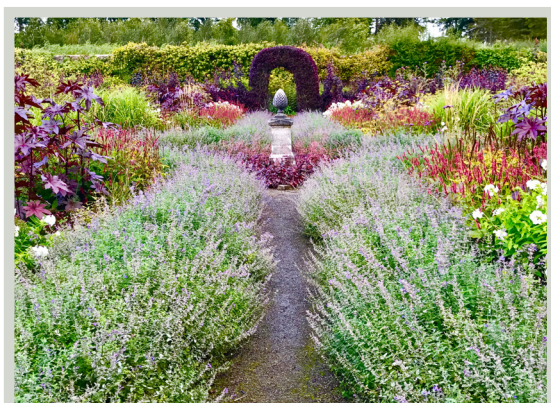

Friday 4th September

We begin our day with a tour of Jupiter Artland. This private collection of sculptures and land forms is situated in a 100-acre parkland surrounding a Jacobean manor house. The 35 site-specific works include pieces by Andy Goldsworthy, Ian Hamilton Finlay and Charles Jencks. Lunch is included at Jupiter Artland. In the afternoon, we see a beautifully designed and planted private, contemporary garden developed around a farmstead which was rescued from dereliction. We meet the owner of this splendid garden that displays excellent structure, imaginative use of objects and eye-catching planting. We return to the hotel where your evening and dinner is at leisure (independent).

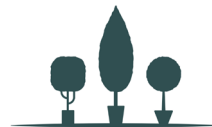

Saturday 5th September

This morning we enjoy a scenic drive through the beautiful Scottish Borders to Abbotsford, the former home of the 19th century novelist and poet, Sir Walter Scott. We have a tour of the house and garden then drive into the borders town of Melrose with time for lunch (independent). Our second stop of the day is at a private estate which has one of the best contemporary walled gardens in the UK. This stunning one-acre garden will be at its peak in early September with bold colours and innovative design. We return to Edinburgh in the afternoon for dinner in a local restaurant (included).

Sunday 6th September

After checking out of our hotel, we journey north, and head to the impressive Drummond Castle gardens. We will enjoy a tour of these majestic gardens, originally laid out in 1630. This formal garden is said to be one of the finest in Europe and the largest of its type in Scotland. After our tour, we stop for a light lunch (included). Later, we check in to the 5-star Ness Walk Hotel, Inverness. We have dinner in the hotel (included).

Monday 7th September

After a leisurely start, we explore the majestic 14th century Cawdor Castle which was built as a private fortress by the Thanes of Cawdor and is famed for its connections with Shakespeare's Macbeth. We have a guided tour of the castle and time to explore the gardens before enjoying a private lunch in the castle restaurant (included). In the afternoon, we visit Old Allangrange Farm to see their two delightful gardens and sample their award-winning beers created in the micro-brewery on site. We return to the hotel where your evening and dinner is at leisure (independent).

Tuesday 8th September

We have a very beautiful drive today, westwards across the Highlands to Inverewe Garden, a lush garden full of unusual and wonderful plants which thrive thanks to the warmth of the Gulf Stream. We have time for lunch at Inverewe (independent).

We continue to Durnamuck Garden, a private coastal plantsman's garden on Little Loch Broom with stunning views. We meet the owners to hear how they developed this unique space and visit a second nearby private garden that they manage. Afterwards, we return to Inverness for dinner (included) in the hotel.

Wednesday 9th September

Today, our first private garden, is located in a magnificent Highland glen. We have a tour of the gardens with the owners on arrival followed by lunch (included). This glorious garden is full of shrubs, herbaceous plants, specimen trees, sculptures and spectacular views down the Findhorn River. Afterwards, we visit Clava Cairns, a well-preserved and ancient burial site. In the afternoon we visit one of Scotland's most exclusive castles to see its stunning walled garden designed by Tom Stuart-Smith. A late Afternoon Tea in the Steading is included.

Thursday 10th September

After check out we commence our journey back to Edinburgh. En route we make a stop at The House of Bruar with its excellent shops and restaurants. There is time for lunch (independent). We then visit a private garden for our final afternoon visit before returning to Edinburgh.

We will arrive in Edinburgh in the late afternoon to wave goodbye for your onward journeys.

Full details of tour joining and departure can be found on our website.

Note: Some garden visits await final confirmation at the time of publication. Our tour starts and ends in Edinburgh. We can provide advice on travel planning.
